

Asylum procedures: reforming the Common European Asylum System

13 July 2016

The Commission is proposing to replace the Asylum Procedures Directive with a Regulation to establish a fully harmonised common EU procedure for international protection, directly applicable in Member States, to provide for a fast but high-quality determination of the international protection needs of applicants.

A fair and efficient common procedure throughout the Union means:

Simpler, clearer and shorter procedures

Short but reasonable time limits are provided for an applicant to accede to the procedure and for concluding the examination of applications both at administrative and judicial levels.

benchmark time limit for a first decision is maintained.

New exceptions are introduced shorter time limits in case of unfounded and inadmissible claims are introduced

Accelerated procedure

Max. 2 months for the examination of the merits of the claim.

Max. 1 month for the admissibility examination.

Max. 10 days for the admissibility examination where an applicant comes from a first country of asylum or a safe third country.

Extended time limits in case of disproportionate increase in the number of applications or complex cases.

3 months

Member States can rely on assistance from the European Union Agency for Asylum

Introduction of time limits

For lodging appeals ranging

Depending on the type of procedure (ex regular, accelerated, admissibility examination)

For decisions at the first appeal stage ranging

Depending on the type of procedure (ex regular, accelerated, admissibility examination)

*may be prolonged by 3 months in cases involving complex issues of facts or law.

Common guarantees for every applicant

All applicants must be fully informed of their rights, obligations and of the consequences of not complying with their obligations.

NEW

The new proposal guarantees:

- free legal assistance, representation and the right to a comprehensive personal interview (assisted by an interpreter)

- standardised information

- reinforced safeguards for applicants with special procedural needs and unaccompanied minors

- the right to remain on the territory of Member States for the duration of the administrative procedure and, in case of an appeal, in principle until the decision is made.

Stricter rules to combat abuse

Obligations for applicants to cooperate with the authorities...

by providing the information necessary to establish their identity and to examine their applications.

NEW

Stricter consequences in case of non-compliance with such obligations:

For example

No fingerprints

Asylum application rejected

The current optional procedural rules for sanctioning abusive behaviour are made compulsory and further reinforced

Clear, exhaustive and compulsory grounds for an accelerated or admissibility procedure.

Harmonised rules on safe countries

Applications from persons manifestly not in need of international protection since they come from a safe country of origin should be rejected and a swift return organised

Where applicants have already found a first country of asylum where they enjoy protection or where their applications can be examined by a safe third country, applications must be declared inadmissible.

NEW

Full harmonisation in this area

from the entry into force of the Regulation, full replacement of national safe country lists or national designations of safe countries of origin and safe third countries with European lists or designations at Union level.
