

Zagreb, 27 March 2020

Dear Colleague,

I regret to announce that the LXIII COSAC, which was scheduled to take place from 24 to 26 May 2020 in Zagreb, is cancelled due to the global COVID-19 outbreak and consequences of the earthquake that affected Zagreb on 22 March 2020.

My colleagues from the European Affairs Committee of the Croatian Parliament and I were looking forward to welcoming you in Zagreb this May, where we wished to implement certain changes to the format of the meeting of COSAC, as discussed during the Chairpersons' Meeting in January. However, the unprecedented circumstances we all face in these difficult days, along with the damage inflicted to the premises of the Croatian Parliament in the earthquake additionally limiting our capacities, leave us with no choice but to cancel all remaining activities within the parliamentary dimension of the Croatian Council Presidency, including the LXIII COSAC.

With the aim of ensuring that the COSAC remains a relevant forum of interparliamentary exchange and a channel of communication with the institutions of the European Union, in the coming days we will propose some form of electronic exchange of views to take place instead of the meeting.

Dear Colleagues, please stay safe and accept assurances of my highest regards.
Sincerely,

Domagoj Ivan Milošević

Chairman of the European Affairs Committee
