

European Business Wallets

Reducing the administrative burden on European businesses

November 2025

EU businesses are struggling with administrative procedures

55% of SMEs

face administrative and regulatory obstacles as their biggest challenge.

2.5% of SME turnover lost

due to regulatory compliance.

European Business Wallets will allow businesses to securely identify, communicate and exchange data across the EU.

For Economic Operators Public Sector Bodies

Provided by EU Private Sector

Interoperable with

EU Digital Identity
Wallet

European Business Wallets digitalise actions normally requiring paperwork.

Know who you're dealing with.

Check the identity of others immediately and prove your own.

Share documents you can trust.

Grant instant access to verified licences, permits, certificates and more.

Sign documents online.

Conveniently apply signatures, seals and timestamps.

Talk to businesses and administrations.

Get in touch via a secure and efficient channel.

Give direct control.

Delegate others to act on your behalf in a legal capacity.

European Business Wallets simplify interactions.

Shred the paperwork.

Go digital for all important actions.

Skip the line.

No manual bottlenecks means low waiting times.

Save travel costs.

Even critical processes can be handled remotely.

Simplify administrative procedures.

Speed up data submission and validation.

Connect your IT systems.

Structured data is easily usable across your digital services.

Applicable anywhere.

Communicate officially and easily across borders.

European Business Wallets deliver tangible value.

Up to €3,500 per micro
in net annual benefits.

€37,250 other SME

€47,300 corporate

Up to €13.2 billion in net
annual benefits for all public sector bodies.