

To the Speakers of the Parliaments of the EU and Candidate Countries

Dear Colleagues,

January 2026

It is my great pleasure to invite you to participate in the upcoming Conference of Speakers of the EU Parliaments, to be held in Copenhagen from 3 to 5 May 2026.

In a time marked by global uncertainty and rapidly changing geopolitical realities, the importance of dialogue, unity, and cooperation among European parliaments cannot be overstated. The European partnership is more crucial than ever, and our shared responsibility to safeguard democracy, security, and stability across our continent calls for close and continued engagement.

The conference in Copenhagen will provide an opportunity for frank and constructive discussions on issues of central importance to Europe's present and future. Among the key themes will be European security and preparedness, hybrid threats, and democratic resilience.

I am confident that your participation will contribute greatly to meaningful exchanges and to strengthening our common efforts in addressing these shared challenges.

I very much look forward to welcoming you to Copenhagen and to continuing our close cooperation in the spirit of European solidarity.

Yours sincerely,

Søren Gade
Speaker of the Danish Parliament
