Voorstel voor een Interparlementaire Conferentie Gemeenschappelijk Buitenlands en Veiligheidsbeleid

B/ Nr. 3

VERSLAG VAN EEN CONFERENTIE

Vastgesteld 26 augustus 2013

Een delegatie van beide Kamers der Staten-Generaal heeft op zondag 24 en maandag 25 maart 2013 in Dublin deelgenomen aan de interparlementaire conferentie betreffende het Gemeenschappelijk Buitenlands en Veiligheidsbeleid, waaronder het Gemeenschappelijk Veiligheids- en Defensiebeleid, van de Europese Unie (hierna aangeduid als «GBVB-conferentie»). De GBVB-conferentie is ingesteld door de Voorzitters van parlementen in de Europese Unie (de nationale parlementen en het Europees Parlement), als uitwerking van de bepalingen van het Verdrag van Lissabon dat op 1 december 2009 in werking trad. Het doel van de conferentie is om een platform te bieden om informatie en werkwijzen uit te wisselen en zodoende de parlementen in staat te stellen hun controlesrendende bevoegdheden uit te oefenen op het gebied van het buitenlands en veiligheidsbeleid. Nadat in september 2012 de eerste bijeenkomst van de GBVB-conferentie in Cyprus had plaatsgevonden, was ditmaal de eer te beurt gevallen aan de twee Kamers van het Ierse Parlement om als gastheer op te treden voor de tweedaagse conferentie, die werd georganiseerd in het kader van het Ierse EU-Raadsvoorzitterschap in de eerste helft van 2013.

De Nederlandse delegatie bestond uit mevrouw Eijsink (PvdA; delegatielid) en mevrouw Bonis (PvdA), respectievelijk voorzitter en lid van de commissie Buitenlandse Zaken van de Tweede Kamer, de heer Vuijk (VVD) en mevrouw Günal-Gezer (PvdA), beiden lid van de commissie Defensie van de Tweede Kamer, alsmede generaal-majoor der mariniers (b.d.) de heer Van Kappen (VVD) en de heer Van der Linden (CDA), respectievelijk voorzitter en lid van de commissie Buitenlandse Zaken, Defensie en Ontwikkelingssamenwerking van de Eerste Kamer. De delegatie werd ambtelijk ondersteund door mevrouw Van Genugten namens de Eerste Kamer en door de heer Van Haaster namens de Tweede Kamer.

Ontvangst en briefing door de Nederlandse ambassadeur in Ierland

De delegatie werd in Dublin welkom geheten door de Nederlandse ambassadeur in Ierland, de heer Paul Schellekens. De heer Schellekens verzorgde na aankomst een briefing over de ambities, kansen en uitdagingen van het Ierse EU-voorzitterschap, met name op het terrein van buitenlandbeleid, en beantwoordde enkele vragen van de leden over de Ierse politieke actualiteit. De delegatie is de heer Schellekens veel dank verschuldigd voor de geboden medewerking en begeleiding tijdens het bezoek van de Nederlandse delegatie aan Dublin.

Procedurele aangelegenheden

De conferentie startte met enkele procedurele aangelegenheden. Ten eerste werd het voorstel behandeld en vastgesteld om een «tijdelijke herzieningscommissie» in het leven te roepen die het in Cyprus geaccrediteerde Reglement van orde van de conferentie en de daarbij aangehouden wijzigingsvoorstellen onder de loep zal nemen. Deze commissie zal in 2014 advies uitbrengen aan de GBVB-conferentie, ter voorbereiding van besluitvorming door de Voorzitters van parlementen in de Europese Unie in april 2015. Namens de delegatie bracht mevrouw Eijsink naar voren dat de herzieningscommissie slechts van tijdelijke aard dient te zijn. Tevens stelde zij voor om alle nationale parlementen bij het herzieningsproces te betrekken.

Ten tweede kwam het voorstel aan de orde om een feitenonderzoeksmissie («fact-finding mission») in de zuidelijke en oostelijke nabuurschapslanden uit te voeren, waarvan de deelnemers zouden worden geworven uit de GBVB-conferentie. Na enige discussie werd geconstateerd dat dit voorstel nog allerlei onvolkomenheden bevatte. Met instemming van de Nederlandse delegatie werd dit onderwerp verdaagd en zal een gewijzigd voorstel voor de GBVB-conferentie in september 2013 in Litouwen worden geagendeerd.

Gedachtwisseling met Hoge Vertegenwoordiger Ashton over vrede en veiligheid in Afrika

Mevrouw Catherine Ashton, Hoge Vertegenwoordiger van de Europese Unie voor Buitenlandse Zaken en Veiligheidsbeleid benoemd in haar toespraak voor de conferentie de belangrijkste uitdagingen en ambities van het GBVB. Als concrete resultaten noemde zij het opstarten van de Europese Dienst voor Extern Optreden (EDEO), de effectiviteit van de missies en operaties die in de directe omgeving van de EU worden uitgevoerd en het aangaan van strategische partnerschappen met belangrijke regio's in de wereld en de opkomende economieën, de zogeheten BRICS-landen. Ook ging mevrouw Ashton in op de geboekte resultaten in de Hoorn van Afrika (Somalië) waar mede dankzij de inzet van de EU het aantal scheepskapingen is gedaald. Ze benadrukte hierbij het belang van een alomvattende strategie («comprehensive approach») waarbij alle beleidsinstrumenten van de EU worden ingezet, vergelijkbaar met de Nederlandse 3D-benadering («defence, diplomacy and development»). Strategieën van gelijke strekking zouden ook dienstbaar zijn aan het bevorderen van vrede, stabiliteit en democratie in de Sahel en in Mali.

Naar aanleiding van de toespraak van Hoge Vertegenwoordiger Ashton stelde de heer Van Kappen de financieringssystematiek van Europese missies en operaties aan de orde. Volgens dit systeem, in het Engels ook wel «the costs lie where they fall» genoemd, worden missies niet uit de Europese begroting voldaan maar zijn de deelnemende EU-lidstaten zelf verantwoordelijk voor de bekostiging van hun deelname en beschikbaarstelling van personeel en materieel. Deze werkwijze beperkt de deelname en effectiviteit van de GVDB-missies. De heer Van Kappen pleitte ervoor om een nieuw systeem voor kostendeling uit te werken, bijvoorbeeld door een gezamenlijk budget voor Europese missies te creëren, en noemde daarbij de Verenigde Naties als voorbeeld. Verscheidene sprekers na de heer Van Kappen deelden deze analyse.

Gedachtewisseling over conflictpreventie en de EU als vredesstichter

Dit programmaonderdeel werd ingeleid door de vicepremier van Ierland («Tánaiste») en tevens Minister van Buitenlandse Zaken en Handel, de heer Eamon Gilmore. De heer Gilmore stelde dat de EU zelf een treffend voorbeeld is van conflictoplossing daar zij is ontstaan uit eeuwenlange vijandigheid en scheiding tussen Europese landen. Hij noemde, uit eigen Ierse ervaring, het Goede Vrijdagakkoord als voorbeeld van een conflictoplossingsmodel waarin verschillende politieke en culturele tradities met wederzijds respect worden verzoend. Een gelijksoortige rol speelt de Europese Unie in de wereld, door als bemiddelaar tussen volkeren of staten vrede in conflictregio's te bevorderen. Hierbij noemde hij de Europese inspanningen in Somalië, Mali en Libië als voorbeeld. In de plenaire discussie werden door opeenvolgende sprekers diverse thema's aangeroerd. Mevrouw Bonis vroeg in haar bijdrage aandacht voor de burgeroorlog in Syrië en stelde het vraagstuk van mogelijke wapenleveranties aan de oppositiepartijen van president Assad aan de orde. Daarnaast voorzag zij een rol voor de EU in het nastreven van de tweestatenoplossing in het Midden-Oostenvredesproces en pleitte zij voor meer aandacht voor de sociale aspecten in het conflicthanteringsbeleid van de EU, zoals de rol van vrouwen (gendergelijkheid) en van jongeren (jeugdwerkgelegenheid). Met name de opmerkingen over het Midden-Oostenvredesproces vonden weerklank bij verscheidene sprekers na mevrouw Bonis.

Workshops over de aanpak van instabiliteit in Afrika en het Midden-Oostenvredesproces

Voor dit onderdeel ging de conferentie in twee groepen uiteen voor de parallelle workshops over het Midden-Oostenvredesproces en de aanpak van instabiliteit in Afrika.

De workshop over de aanpak van instabiliteit in Afrika werd in goede banen geleid door de heer Ronan Murphy, oud-directeur van Irish Aid, de Ierse overheidsorganisatie voor ontwikkelingsbeleid. Gedurende de workshop werd alom waardering uitgesproken voor de Europese missies in de Hoorn van Afrika (EUNAVFOR Atalanta, EUTM Somalië en EUCLAP Nestor) en de behaalde resultaten, bijvoorbeeld het terugdringen van piraterij voor de kust van Somalië. Een goede coördinatie tussen EU en EU-lidstaten werd hierbij als kritische succesfactor benoemd. Tevens werd ook in dit verband belang gehecht aan de «comprehensive approach» van de EU in alle fasen van de zogeheten conflictcyclus bij crisisbeheersingssituaties (te weten conflictpreventie en -bemiddeling, interventie, stabilisatie en normalisatie/vredesopbouw).

De workshop over het Midden-Oostenvredesproces werd gedomineerd door de heer Andreas Reinicke, Speciaal Vertegenwoordiger van de EU in het Midden-Oosten. In zijn inleiding belichtte de heer Reinicke een aantal gezichtspunten in het conflict tussen Israël en de Palestijnse Autoriteit, waaronder het belang van vrede voor Israël, voor de regio en ook voor de Europese Unie («Vrede is de beste waarborg voor veiligheid»), de bevestiging van de Amerikaanse regering-Obama voor een tweestatenoplossing en het nieuwe initiatief voor vredesbesprekkingen.

In de daaropvolgende discussie leverden diverse sprekers een inbreng, onder wie Eerste Kamerlid Van der Linden. Aanhakend op de tweestatenoplossing stelde de heer Van der Linden de nederzettingenpolitiek van Israël aan de orde en constateerde hij dat de «Arabische lente» de geopolitieke verhoudingen in het Midden-Oosten heeft gewijzigd. Speciale aandacht vroeg hij voor de potentieel betekenisvolle rol die Rusland en Turkije in het Midden-Oostenvredesproces zouden kunnen vervullen.

Gedachtwisseling over het Veiligheids- en Defensiebeleid van de EU

Dit agendapunt werd ingeleid met een redevoering door de Ierse Minister voor Justitie, Gelijkheid en Defensie, de heer Alan Shatter. De heer Shatter liet toe dat de Europese Raad van 19 en 20 december 2013 in het teken zal staan van de vormgeving van het Gemeenschappelijk Veiligheids- en Defensiebeleid. De regeringsleiders zullen in deze Europese Raadsbijeenkomst conclusies aannemen over de richting en diepgang van het GVDB, waaronder de effectiviteit en zichtbaarheid van GVDB-missies, het vergroten van defensiecapaciteiten, het competitiever maken van de Europese defensie-industrie en het bevorderen van bi- en multilaterale defensiesamenwerking met medewerking van het Europese Defensieagentschap. De heer Shatter pleitte bij deze gelegenheid voor taakspecialisatie en expertiseontwikkeling per EU-lidstaat of per groep van lidstaten. De heer Shatter stelde dat de Europabrede aanwezigheid van politieke wil voorwaardelijk is voor het zonder vertraging beschikbaar stellen van capaciteiten voor internationale vredeshandhavings- en crisisbeheersingsoperaties.

Namens de Nederlandse delegatie brachten mevrouw Eijsink en de heer Van Kappen de «EU-battlegroups» te berde, de militaire eenheden die paraat staan maar nog nooit zijn ingezet door de EU. Beide sprekers pleitten voor agendering van dit onderwerp in de Europese Raad. Onder het motto «use them or lose them» zouden de regeringsleiders een besluit moeten nemen over de toekomst van de EU-battlegroups, zo bepleitte de Nederlandse delegatie.

Aanname van conclusies door de conferentie

Aan het einde van de tweedaagse bijeenkomst heeft de GBVB-conferentie bij consensus conclusies aangenomen, die overigens niet-bindend zijn voor de parlementaire delegaties. In deze conclusies wordt steun uitgesproken voor de «comprehensive approach» van de EU en voor de toezegging van Hoge Vertegenwoordiger Ashton om het brede scala aan beleidsinstrumenten die het Verdrag van Lissabon biedt – politiek, economisch, ontwikkelingsgericht, humanitair en militair – in kaart te brengen. Ook werd geconstateerd dat de opgaven voor vrede en veiligheid in zowel Afrika als het Midden-Oosten groot zijn, en dat de EU door middel van (trainings)missies en operaties een wezenlijke bijdrage kan leveren aan stabiliteit, ontwikkeling en democratisering in deze regio's.

Gehoord de discussie over het Midden-Oostenvredesproces, besloot de conferentie een bepaling in de conclusies op te nemen, waarin zij zich uitspreekt voor het heropenen van vredesonderhandelingen en het bereiken van een oplossing gebaseerd op twee staten die in vrede en veiligheid naast elkaar bestaan.

Ten aanzien van het GVDB werd het belang van defensiesamenwerking onderstreept en de hoopvolle verwachting uitgesproken dat de Europese

Raad in december 2013 de nieuwe GVDB-visie zal bepalen, waaronder het vergroten van de effectiviteit van EU-missies en operaties, het terugdringen van de civiele en militaire capaciteitstekorten en het stimuleren van defensie-investeringen. Door een amendement van de Nederlandse delegatie werd tevens in de conclusies opgenomen, dat de Europese Raad zal worden verzocht om zich te buigen over het financieringsmechanisme van GVDB-operaties en de toekomst van de EU-battlegroups. De volledige conclusies van de conferentie zijn als bijlage bij dit verslag gevoegd.

Conclusions of the Inter-Parliamentary Conference for the Common Foreign and Security Policy and the Common Security and Defence Policy (Dublin, 24 & 25 March 2013)

Introduction

1. The second meeting of the Inter-Parliamentary Conference for the Common Foreign and Security Policy and the Common Security and Defence Policy, hereinafter referred to as «the Inter-Parliamentary Conference», was held in Dublin on 24 and 25 March 2013, at the invitation of the Ceann Comhairle and the Cathaoirleach, the Presidents respectively of Dáil Eireann and Seanad Eireann, the two Houses of the Parliament of Ireland, in the framework of the Parliamentary Dimension of Ireland's Presidency of the Council of the European Union, in accordance with the Decisions of the Conference of Speakers of the EU Parliaments made at its meetings in Brussels on 4 and 5 April 2011 and in Warsaw on 20 and 21 April 2012, and in accordance with the Rules of Procedure of the Inter-Parliamentary Conference adopted in Paphos, Cyprus, on 9 September 2012.
2. The Inter-Parliamentary Conference was attended by delegations of the national Parliaments of Member States of the EU and the European Parliament. Delegations of national Parliaments of EU candidate countries and European member countries of NATO which are not EU Member States also attended as observers.

Procedural business

3. The Inter-Parliamentary Conference adopted a proposal by the Presidency Parliament, made pursuant to the Conclusions of the Inter-Parliamentary Conference in Cyprus, to appoint an Ad Hoc Review Committee (AHRC) to conduct a review of arrangements for the Inter-Parliamentary Conference in accordance with the decisions of the Conference of Speakers and the Inter-Parliamentary Conference. Adoption was subject to the inclusion of Italy as a member of the Working Group of countries that will co-operate closely with the Presidencies in presiding over the AHRC. The incoming Presidency of Lithuania is asked to preside over the commencement of the work of the Ad Hoc Review Committee. The proposal as adopted is appended (Appendix 1) to these Conclusions.
4. The Inter-Parliamentary Conference considered a proposal by the House of Representatives of the Republic of Cyprus, made pursuant to the Conclusions of the Inter-Parliamentary Conference in Cyprus, on a fact-finding mission regarding the Southern and Eastern Mediterranean Neighbourhood. It was agreed to report the comments made on the proposal to the Cyprus Parliament and to ask it to refer it or a revised proposal to the Inter-Parliamentary Conference in Lithuania in September.

Proceedings of the Inter-Parliamentary ConferenceHigh Representative of the EU for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy

5. The High Representative of the EU for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy, Catherine Ashton, addressed the meeting and set out the priorities and strategies of the EU in the area of the CFSP and CSDP.

6. Catherine Ashton, speaking to the topic «The CFSP and CSDP – Working for Peace, Security and Development in Africa», discussed the benefits of an integrated approach to ensure that various policies and instruments at the EU's disposal are used coherently and effectively in support of common objectives. Concrete success of this approach in Horn of Africa is demonstrated by the curbing, since May 2012 of hijacking of vessels at sea. Also discussed was the use of a similar Comprehensive Approach in Sahel/Mali; importance in each situation of creating circumstances and long term vision to aid transition to democratic rule; the importance of role of women; continued support by the EU and its Member States in supporting the transition process initiated in several Arab States including importance of supporting specificities of each country.
7. The High Representative's address was followed by a wide-ranging debate. The themes of the discussion included the importance of respect for local populations and adapting Comprehensive Approach to specificities of each country/region; need for «strategic patience» with long term vision in assisting countries; importance of supporting development of concrete essential services; deep democracy, linking political reform with economic reform; other areas of concern including Eastern Partnership countries, Central Africa and Congo; continued importance of EU's Strategic Partners; concern with aspects of Human Rights in Russia; continued support for Middle East Peace Process; enhancing the development of defence capabilities by strengthening European defence cooperation through Pooling and Sharing and ensuring Research and Development is used to best effect.

Tánaiste and Minister for Foreign Affairs and Trade, Ireland

8. Ireland's Tánaiste (Deputy Prime Minister) and Minister for Foreign Affairs and Trade, Mr. Eamon Gilmore T.D., addressed the meeting on the topic of «Conflict Prevention – the EU as Peacemaker» and set out the perspectives of the Irish Presidency in the area of the Common Foreign and Security Policy generally.
9. In the course of his address, the Tánaiste noted that the EU itself was a prime example of conflict resolution having emerged from centuries of enmity and division. In Ireland, the Good Friday Agreement was a recent example of a framework which acknowledged separate political identities and traditions while at the same time respecting and helping to bridge them. There was growing appreciation for the role of the Union as a force for good in the world. He urged greater use of mediation as a useful and cost effective tool. He noted that the Union was involved currently in building state capacity in Libya, implementing the Comprehensive Approach in Somalia and strengthening the capacity of the authorities in Mali.
10. The address by the Tánaiste was followed by a wide-ranging debate. The themes of the discussion included the need for even greater foreign policy vision; the supply of arms to the rebels in Syria; the promotion of good governance; the increase in settlements in the E1 area as a serious threat to the two state solution in Israel; the need for countries to implement the development aid target of 0.7% of GNI (as the UK had recently) and the need to look beyond current conflicts to future areas of conflict such as Pakistan and Morocco. The Tánaiste acknowledged that Europe could do more in relation to tax justice and Europe not providing tax havens for multi-national companies to evade and avoid paying taxes in African countries where they are operating.

11. Ireland's Minister for Justice, Equality and Defence, Mr. Alan Shatter T.D., addressed the meeting on the topic of «The European Council on Defence 2013» and set out the perspectives of the Irish Government in the area of the Common Security and Defence Policy generally.
12. In the course of his address, the Minister highlighted active engagement and common themes emerging since December 2012 including the need for; Pooling and Sharing, clearly articulated political commitment to deployment of Battlegroups; development of functional toolbox of military capabilities and improved EU level decision making cycles; emphasised Common Security and Defence Policy must ensure maintenance of peace and security, so as to guarantee security of EU.s citizens and the promotion of its interests; EU has to be able to rely on itself to facilitate actions and reactions to world events, therefore may need to consider Member States specialising in niche capabilities; internal delays must not delay launching of CSDP operations and political will needed to make capabilities available when and where needed. Finally need to strengthen Europe's Defence industry to ensure it is more integrated, sustainable and competitive with well-functioning defence market.
13. The address by the Minister was followed by a wide-ranging debate. The themes of the discussion included the economic situation and impact on defence capabilities, responses to existing and emerging threats; existing European shortfalls in key enablers; capability requirements into the future and developing a common understanding of priorities; enhancing operational effectiveness; improving capacity of EU to rely on itself to facilitate actions and reactions to world events; cooperation with other relevant international actors.
14. Remarks were also made by Mr. Maciej Popowski, Deputy Secretary General, European External Action Service.

Workshops

15. The plenary meeting of the Inter-Parliamentary Conference was suspended to permit delegates to participate in two workshops.

The Comprehensive Approach to instability in Africa. the experience of the Horn of Africa

16. Delegates met in Workshop format to debate <sup>1</sup>«The Comprehensive Approach to instability in Africa. the experience of the Horn of Africa»<sup>12</sup>. The workshop was moderated by Mr. Ronan Murphy, former Director of Irish Aid. Ms. Joelle Jenny, Director for Conflict Prevention and Security Policy, EEAS, made opening contextual remarks. The rapporteur was Mr. Arnaud Danjean, Chairman of the Security and Defence sub-Committee, European Parliament.
17. A number of key themes and challenges emerged in the course of debate among delegates. These included the efforts to resolve the conflict in Somalia and the state-building and stabilisation effort in that country, serious food instability and vulnerability problems in the region, cross-border tensions between Ethiopia and Eritrea, threats of terrorism and the continuing threat to international shipping from pirates.
18. Delegates discussed the combination of humanitarian and development efforts, together with the political engagement of the EU Special Representative and the work of the three CSDP missions. Particularly highlighted was the importance of partnerships

- especially with the African Union which ensures legitimacy and local ownership, and of good coordination between Member States» actions with those of the EU institutions.
19. The workshop noted that development of a genuine „Comprehensive Approach to the external relations of the EU should ensure that the various policies and instruments at the EUs disposal are used coherently and effectively in support of common objectives. The comprehensive approach should apply to all aspects of the «conflict cycle» from prevention to mediation to crisis management to post conflict reconstruction and peace-building. Delegates also recognised the importance of ensuring that humanitarian assistance should continue to be available to all who need it.

The Middle East Peace Process – the role of the European Union

20. A second Workshop was held at which delegates debated «The Middle East Peace Process – the role of the European Union». The workshop was moderated by Mr. Andreas Reinicke, EU Special Representative for the Middle East Peace Process. The rapporteur was Mr. Petras Aušrevičius, Deputy Speaker of the Seimas of the Republic of Lithuania.
21. A number of key themes emerged in the course of debate among delegates. These included the urgent need for genuine, substantive and continuous negotiations on the MEPP; the need for a comprehensive, regional solution to ensure long-lasting peace; the importance of a negotiated peace based on the two-state solution; and the on-going determination of the EU to work constructively with all who wish to ensure peace, stability and prosperity in the region, including the US and the Quartet and regional actors including Turkey and Egypt. Delegates emphasised that ending the conflict is a fundamental interest of the EU and noted the importance of a ceasefire agreement in Gaza. In addition to its diplomatic role, the provision of humanitarian and development assistance to different countries in the Middle East was discussed. Recent developments, including the formation of a new Israeli government and the visit of President Obama and his strong political commitment to the peace process, were noted in the hope such landmarks will add fresh impetus to the peace process in due course. Delegates also discussed current developments regarding Syria and the Arab Spring. The complexity of the situation in Syria and the risk for further instability in the region was acknowledged. Delegates expressed a desire to see the EU fulfil its political leadership potential in the region including by means of financial assistance.

Conclusions

The Inter-Parliamentary Conference adopted the following conclusions:

The Inter-Parliamentary Conference -

22. Being committed to fulfil the role envisaged for it by Title II of Protocol I of the Treaty of Lisbon and mandated to it by the Conference of Speakers of EU Parliaments,
23. Aware of the dynamic and expectations for a more effective and coherent Common EU Foreign and Security Policy and Security and Defence Policy, resulting from the adoption of the Treaty of Lisbon,
24. Cognisant of the fact that the CFSP and CSDP involve the contribution of a variety of actors and policies at both national and EU levels,

25. Conscious that the multi-layered nature of the CFSP and CSDP necessitates close cooperation between national Parliaments and the European Parliament, with full regard to their respective rights, duties and representative mandates,
26. Is committed to contributing to the development of the Inter-Parliamentary Conference towards an optimum configuration,
27. Resolves to enhance the democratic engagement in the CFSP and CSDP by promoting a more systematic, regular and timely exchange of information on the different aspects and implications of the CFSP and CSDP at both national and EU levels,
28. Recalls the achievement of the EU in being awarded the prestigious Nobel Peace Prize as an example of regional reconciliation and peace following the devastation and destruction of the first half of the twentieth century; Recognises that promoting peaceful resolution of conflict has been a core part of the Unions CFSP since the 2001 European Council made a commitment to strengthening capacities for conflict prevention and peace-building including preventive diplomacy, mediation, dialogue and reconciliation;
29. Considers the further strengthening of these capacities to be essential to achieving a Comprehensive Approach; Believes that the Union's unique experiences and resources in this field, including those of its national parliaments, should be utilized and shared;
30. Emphasises that the strength of the EU lies in developing a Comprehensive Approach drawing upon its unique ability to mobilise the full range of political, economic, development, humanitarian and – as a last resort and in accordance with the UN Charter – military means to address global challenges and threats; Is convinced that the effectiveness of this approach is only possible by solid coordination between the European External Action Service and the Commission and crucially via the support and complementarity offered by the actions of the Member States;
31. Welcomes the HRVP's initiative to map out in a report how to achieve such a Comprehensive Approach and thereby make full use of the potential of the Lisbon Treaty; Is convinced that inter-parliamentary engagement through dialogue, cooperation and promotion of democracy constitutes a significant long term component of this Comprehensive Approach;
32. Is determined, by means of this enhanced dialogue and exchange of information, to address the decision-making, capacity-building and operational weaknesses of the CFSP and CSDP, in order to make it more effective and efficient in addressing our common challenges and pursuing our common goals,
33. Expects the High Representative to bring forward an ambitious report in a timely manner on the review of the organisation and functioning of the EEAS as decided by Council on 26 July 2010 and to allow adequate time for debate and comment on this report by parliaments,
34. Acknowledges that the complex crisis situation in Mali and the Sahel represents a serious and immediate challenge for European foreign and security policy and fully supports the actions initiated by France and reinforced by the EU in Mali involving the deployment of the Comprehensive Approach, especially, the establishment of the EUTM Mali,
35. Welcomes the efforts to establish the rule of law and address the loss of life in the Horn of Africa and supports all efforts to fully implement the EU strategy for the Horn of Africa, which implements the Comprehensive Approach and, in particular, the achievements of the three current operations EUNAVFOR Atalanta, EUTM Somalia and EUCLAP Nestor to reinforce the prospects of sustainable regional stability,

36. Encourages the African Union including regional organisations to play a greater role in addressing the conflicts in Africa and specifically in the Horn of Africa,
37. Calls on the various EU institutions to develop further the tools at their disposal for conflict prevention and, in particular, mediation which is an effective and cost-efficient instrument for conflict prevention and to deploy all of these tools in a much more coordinated way,
38. Notes the commitment made by the HRVP to ensuring the EU plays a prominent role in the difficult but important process of peace in the Middle East; supports wholeheartedly the Council conclusions of December 2012 on the Middle East Peace Process and welcomes any moves aimed at the restarting of genuine negotiations on the MEPP and at the achievement of the two-state solution with the State of Israel and an independent, democratic, contiguous and viable State of Palestine living side by side in peace and security; recalls that solving the conflict in the Middle East is a fundamental interest of the EU as well as of the parties themselves and the wider region,
39. Stresses that the need for progress in the peace process is even more urgent due to the ongoing changes in the Arab world; Highlights the need for dialogue with the Arab League and the Organisation of the Islamic Conference as well as other relevant regional actors on how to help restart negotiations; welcomes the positive commitment to the peace process by the re-elected US administration and believes that the EU should make dialogue and coordination with the US on this issue a high priority; Stresses the importance of continuing support to the Palestinian Authority in order to maintain their statehood management capacity,
40. Notes that the report of the High Representative aimed at developing further proposals and actions to strengthen CSDP and improve the availability of the required civilian and military capabilities is due by September 2013, with a view to a full discussion at the December 2013 European Council and urges the fullest consultation possible with all parliaments in this regard,
41. Encourages the Council to give a much-needed political boost to address the serious decline in European defence investment, capabilities and industrial capacity and to reconsider the financing mechanism of CSDP operations as well as the EU battle groups; Welcomes also the important contribution being made by the European Commission's Task Force,
42. Trusts that the European Council will reaffirm the importance of the defence pillar in the EU's comprehensive approach and commit to addressing defence capability shortfalls as well as bridging the gap between the Union's civilian and military capacities; Encourages therefore the European Council to set out a roadmap with specific timelines for achieving progress on defence issues including the Pooling and Sharing initiatives through the European Defence Agency as well as other solutions to make sure that the Union's security is assured despite the significant defence cuts in all Member States,
43. Asks the Presidency Parliament, in accordance with the Rules of Procedure of the Inter-Parliamentary Conference, to forward these Conclusions to all delegations, to the Presidents of National Parliaments and of the European Parliament, to the Presidents of the European Council and the Commission and the High Representative for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy,
44. Between now and the next meeting of the Conference, its members will focus on identifying the obstacles to the implementation of all the provisions to the Lisbon Treaty concerning the CSDP. During the next meeting of the Conference, a session should be devoted to a discussion of these questions. The conclusions of these questions could be sent to the European Council in view of the December meeting devoted to the defence questions.
