Dear Mr Buisman,

Further to your correspondence with Mr Garrone, I have the pleasure to inform you that the document entitled "European decision-making processes and National Parliaments - Replies to the Questionnaire" (enclosed) has been made public.

This document could be the basis of a conference on the issue. However, the Venice Commission, due to its very busy agenda, is presently not in a position to organise such a conference, at least in the near future.

Yours sincerely,

Director, Secretary of the Venice Commission

Simona Granata-Menghini
