Subject: Support for a Democratic Transition in Iran

Dear Member of the Parliament,

I am writing to you as a concerned citizen to respectfully draw your attention to the ongoing struggle for democratic change in Iran.

For decades, the people of Iran have endured systematic repression, human rights abuses, and the denial of basic freedoms under the current regime. The courageous protests by Iranians over the past years demonstrate the profound desire of ordinary citizens for a free and democratic society. Many Iranians see the current military developments as a potential opportunity for freedom that they have long been denied.

The European Union can play an important role in supporting the Iranian people in their pursuit of liberty and democratic self-determination.

Crown Prince ^{5.1.2.e} ^{5.1.2.e} has called for national unity, secular governance, and a peaceful transition to democracy through a free referendum. This vision is shared by millions of Iranians both inside the country and across the diaspora.

In this context, I respectfully ask you to consider the following:

1. Invite Crown Prince ^{5.1.2.e} ^{5.1.2.e} to the Parliament to present his vision and plans for a free, secular, and democratic Iran.
2. Take necessary measures to support the territorial integrity of Iran after the military intervention is over and help ensure a stable and peaceful transition to a secular democratic government.
3. Publicly support the Iranian people's right to self-determination, including a free referendum on their future system of governance.
4. Advocate for stronger diplomatic measures to hold the Iranian regime accountable for its human rights violations, including the expulsion of Iranian regime diplomats and the closure of the Islamic Republic's embassies where appropriate.
5. Support policies that empower Iranian civil society and democratic forces, rather than legitimizing the current regime.

Thank you very much for your time and consideration.

Yours sincerely,

^{5.1.2.e}
